

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

No. 15099

Governor of the State of Texas

ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

May 17, 1935

 REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
 TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

WHEREAS, House Bill 70,

*AN ACT amending Article 2956, by adding thereto another Section, Article 2956-A, providing that persons who are feeble, ill and confined in bed or confined to their places of abode by reason of illness, may vote as absentees; may vote under Article 2956; providing said elector shall, not more than twenty (20) nor less than three (3) days prior to said election make affidavit as to illness and file same with application for ballot with the County Clerk; and any election officer shall authorize such person to vote, and the means and manner thereof; providing exceptions, and for the general enforcement of the provisions hereof; amending Article 2956, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, as amended by the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature and as amended by the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature, and declaring an emergency."

passed by the 44th Legislature in regular session and is now before me, As Governor for approval or veto; and

WHEREAS, said bill deals with absentee voting, the same subject matter covered House Bill 49 passed at the same session of said 44th Legislature; and

WHEREAS, the approval of each of said bills would create confusion since the provisions of said bills are in conflict; and

WHEREAS, in my judgment, said House Bill 49 is more clear and definite in its provisions and is, therefore, a better bill; and

WHEREAS, I have already signed said House Bill 49 and desire to avoid the confusion and confusion which would result from approving House Bill 70,

Now, therefore, I, James V. Allred, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby proclaim said bill and for the reasons above set out and now on file in the office of the Secretary of

James V. Allred
 Governor of Texas

By the Governor:

Gracie M. Mow
 Secretary of State

2628